

South Asia Earthquake Relief Appeal

- Vast areas of Kashmir/South Asia have been devastated by the largest earthquake in a century, 7.6 Richter scale.
- At least 40 thousand people have been killed and hundreds of thousands have been maimed and rendered homeless.
- Many New England area residents have lost loved ones in this tragedy.
- There is an urgent need for food, shelter, clothes, medicines and medical care.

New England residents are mobilizing their efforts through the Association of Pakistani Physicians of New England (APPNE) to deliver emergency funds and medical supplies to the affected area, working with physician groups and reputable non-profit organizations on the ground.

APPNE is the New England chapter of the Association of Physicians of Pakistani Descent of North America (APPNA), which represents 10,000 Pakistani-American doctors in America.
